Craven Safety Services

Craven Safety Services would like to let all their clients know that we are still here, although now all working from home. If we can help with any Health & Safety issues please get in touch in the usual way.

The office phone is now being put through to Alan, so if you want anyone else please use email.

If you work in the construction industry why not get ready for the return to work by getting certified with CHAS, Constructionline, Safecontractor etc. Just drop Abi an email on abibaker@cravensafetyservices.co.uk and she will get you started.
